

COURSE DATASHEET

Semester:	2021/22/1
Course:	The multilingual brain
Code:	PEDITNY003
Responsible department:
Department code:	DITNY
Responsible instructor:	Gyula Sáry

Course objectives:

Learn linguistic functions of the brain, especially how it deals with several languages

Course content:

After receiving the morphological, biological and neurological background students learn the neuronal basis of human communication forms, including spoken language, reading, gesticulation etc. Extra emphasis is put on the multilingual functions.

Requirements, evaluation and grading:

A set of learning topics is available. Selected topics are used for assignments.

Required and recommended readings:

Rita Carter: The Human Brain Book (2009)