Félév:	2021/22/1
Tárgynév:	Academic writing
Tárgykód:	PEDITNY075
Felelős szervezet neve:	Többnyelvűségi Nyelvtudományi Doktori Iskola
Felelős szervezet kódja:	DITNY
Tárgyfelelős neve:	Prof. Verspoor Marjolijn

Oktatás célja:

The aim of the course is to help students be aware of the conventions of academic writing in research articles, PhD dissertations and book reviews.

Tantárgy tartalma:

The course will consist of 3 meetings during the semester and a genre-based model approach will be used. Three articles (one based on your own choice) will be analyzed in great detail to show how academic argumentation is accomplished through organization, citation and conventionalized academic expressions and you will write summaries. In addition, each student will be working on an assignment for another course in the program or a research article and Prof. Verspoor will give detailed feedback where needed.

Számonkérési és értékelési rendszere:

Students are expected to participate actively in class (be present, take part in the discussion) and provide several texts. The final text, after feedback has been provided by the instructor, will be used as assessment instrument.

Kötelező és ajánlott irodalom:

Various research articles and book reviews provided via Google Classroom to be analyzed in depth and used as templates.
